PERFECT SNOWMEN

BY DAWN LEE

School is cancelled! Violet and Ben go outside to build snowmen.

“Ben! Why don’t you go to the woods to find some branches for the snowmen’s arms?”

Ben picks up a branch, but it is too twisted.

He picks up another one, but it is too short!

Then, he finds two branches that are perfect.

He also spots something purple, swaying in the wind.

“Thank you, Ben! Now, why don’t you get some carrots from the garden? We need noses for the snowmen,” says Violet.

Ben goes to the garden. While picking some carrots, he spots something.

A hat!

“Wonderful! Now Ben, could you please find some dark stones for the snowman’s eyes?” says Violet.

Ben looks until he finds the perfect ones. While searching, he also sees something glisten among the dark rocks. It is a pair of glasses!

“Perfect! Now our snowmen are complete!”

But Ben isn't finished.

Ben shows the objects he collected to Violet.
“I’m sorry, Ben, we can’t put this on our snowmen.

The lens on these glasses are shattered,

and the hat is ripped,”
says Violet.

“I don’t think anybody will want to look at snowmen with broken things.”

She soon returns.

“I’ll get Mom and Dad so that we can show them our snowmen,” says Violet.

“Wow Violet! They are really beautiful,” says Mom.

“They’re the whole family!” says Violet

“Hmm... which one is me?” asks Dad.

Violet isn't sure.

“Hmm... maybe the snowmen are too perfect. I wonder if they need more personality,” says Dad.

Ben decorates the snowmen with his objects.

“What a beautiful hat!” says Mom.

“That snowman is wearing glasses like me!” says Dad.

“That looks like my ribbon!” says Violet.

The whole family is delighted, especially Violet.

“Thanks, Ben,” says Violet. “Now our snowmen are finally complete.”.
